

Horn Lake Fire Station

Fire Station

Horn Lake, MS

Fowler Engineering provided structural engineering services for the new fire station in Horn Lake, MS. A concrete foundation was utilized to support a combination of load bearing concrete masonry units and light gage metal stud walls. The high roof was constructed with light gage metal trusses and the canopies were constructed with structural steel.

Architect: Marvin Johnson Architect

Top: Exterior Photo

Bottom: Exterior Photo

