

McLendon Student Union

Northwest Mississippi Community College Senatobia, MS

Fowler Engineering provided structural engineering services for this student union renovation. Steel structure with shallow concrete foundations was utilized for this project. The building featured a multi-purpose gym, bookstore, conference rooms, computer labs, and office facilities. This project was considered the largest renovation in the college's history.

Architect: AERC Architecture
Top: Structural Revit model
Bottom: Exterior Arch. Rendering

