

NEMCC Baseball & Softball Complex

Northeast Mississippi
Community College
Booneville, MS

Fowler Engineering provided structural engineering services for this new baseball and softball complex utilizing structural brick. A two-story building was designed to house the concessions, restrooms, ticket booth, and press box. The building between fields contains split locker rooms which serves both baseball and softball. The indoor facility provides multiple batting cages and storage for maintenance equipment.

Architect: AERC, PLLC
Top: Aerial Photo
Bottom: Arch. Rendering

